

2015 SCC SUMMER DINNER THEATRE

FBI GIRL

How I Learned to Crack My Father's Code

What's the story behind "FBI Girl"?

Fascinated by the elusive mysteries of her father, 1960's Special Agent Joe Conlon, young Maura is eager to crack "the code" that makes his world so lusciously impenetrable. Revealing the secret life of one highly imaginative girl, FBI Girl is a moving account of family bonds, the trials that test them, and the triumphs that make them - and us - stronger.

Is childcare available?

Childcare is not provided for Summer Dinner Theatre productions.

Should I bring children to the production?

While "FBI Girl" is a family-friendly comedy-drama, the subject matter best holds the attention of children ages 8 and above. As a courtesy to our guests, we discourage parents from bringing children under the age of 4 into the theatre.

How long does the production last?

Running time is approximately 2 hours, including a ten-minute intermission between the two acts.

What are the dates, times and location for "FBI Girl"?

Friday – Sunday, July 17th – 19th at The LINK, Henderson Campus. Doors open at 6:00 pm; dinner served immediately.

We will offer a new Dessert Matinee on Sunday, July 19th. Doors open at 2:00 pm.

What's on the menu?

Dinner consists of Chicken Alfredo Florentine, Seasonal Vegetable Medley, Garden Salad, and Yeast Rolls & Butter. Dessert choices include Peach Cobbler with French Vanilla Ice Cream or Double Chocolate Mocha Brownie a la Mode. (Dessert Matinee choices include Tiramisu and Lemon Cream Cake. Tea, Lemonade and coffee are available before the play and during intermission.
